INTELLIGENCE CENTRAL

THE FIRST AND OFTEN LAST RESORT

INTELLIGENCE CENTRAL

Trusted by 25% of all Fortune 500 companies worldwide, Western governments and fellow intelligence agencies, TAM-C is the world's preferred agency of intelligence & risk management providing state-level intelligence, reconnaissance, and field support to corporations, executive protection & law enforcement entities that rely on critical security operations for real-time and systemic threat prevention year-round.

The powerful difference of TAM-C intelligence helps business entities in the private sector stay ahead of security threats by:

Rating risk levels and making appropriate plans for collecting intelligence.

Producing periodical objective intelligence reports and analysis, including real time alerts.

Conducting special field operations to meet threats that have escalated beyond the scope of our clients' security services.

Consulting law enforcement organizations and western government entities.

Training the next generation of intelligence officers worldwide.

HOW WE DO IT

We maintain a top team of lead analysts in growing areas of interest to our clients like Insider Threats, Executive Protection, IP theft, Cyber, Terrorism, Natural Disasters, Transcontinental Crime, and others.

We combine the collective intelligence of our multi-national in-house teams with Argo™, our proprietary artificial intelligence network employing ML and advanced language models to monitor threats in real time.

COMMAND, CONTROL, INTELLIGENCE 24/7

We produce in-depth analysis and provide security concensus on a range of topics and work to contribute wherever possible to the private sector's intelligence community.

We help clients plan best and worst case scenario intel-gathering programs and are ready to step in to solve real time challenges in the field.

MISSION

We assess risks, we gather intel, we share alerts, we educate and empower our clients and our partners to protect their business interests and achieve their goals in an increasingly dangerous world.

TAM·C
INTELLIGENCE CENTRAL

Originally created as a Targeted Actionable Monitoring Center by law enforcement and military intelligence veterans, TAM-C employs an innovative approach to mitigating security threats in the private sector by making the client the central piece in the intelligence collection model. TAM-C gathers and analyses client-specific intelligence vs. generic security advisories to derive powerful actionable insights.
